Jérôme Olive, born on 8 December 1957, is an engineer who graduated from the ICAM school of engineering in 1980.*

He went to work at Renault's Sandouville plant in 1982. He was involved in the R25 and R21 vehicle projects, occupying various posts concerned with the reliability of procedures and maintenance. In 1985 he joined the SBFM as Investments and Maintenance Manager, then as Production Director. In 1996 he moved to Renault Douai for the start-up of Scenic 1, working as head of the Body-in-White Assembly Department. In 1999 he became Deputy Director in charge of manufacturing, and was appointed Director of the plant early in 2004.

François Fourmont, born on 24 December 1948, holds a Doctorate in Economics and a DESS diploma in Human Resources Management. He joined Renault in 1975 and held several posts in Human Resources. From 1988 to the end of 1998 he occupied various posts in the Sandouville and Le Mans plants. He became Managing Director of Auto Chassis International and Chairman and CEO of SNT in January 1999, then Managing Director of Dacia in July 2003. He has been Managing Director of the Renault group in Romania since March 2008.*
